

Society for Reformation Studies

7th Annual Conference, 29-31 March 2000 at Westminister College, Cambridge

Christian Humanism

Return to home page

Wednesday, March 29th 2000

14.00

Registration starts

15.45

Tea in the Common Room

16.30 Healey Room and Elias Library

Welcome by the Chairman, Ian Hazlett, University of Glasgow

16.45-18.15

Session I: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: Paul Ayris

16.45

Helen Evans, University of Cambridge

The bringing of Jersey into the Church of England

17.30

Jeffrey Leininger, University of Cambridge

The Gospel according to John Bale

18.15

Close

18.30

Dinner

19.45-21.15 Session II: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: David Wright, University of Edinburgh

19.45

John Jackson, University of Oxford

The Royal Supremacy, the Reformatio Legum and England's Caput

Supremum: Replacing the 'Pope's Law' with the King's Law

20.30

Marianne Dorman, University of Oxford

Andrewes and the Seventeenth Century on Ecumenism

21.15

Session ends

Thursday, March 30th 2000

07.45

Breakfast

09.30-11.00

Session III: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: John Jackson, University of Oxford

09.30

Patrick Preston, University College, Chichester

Ambrosius Catharinus and the Counter-Reformation rejection of Humanism

10.15

Tony Lane, London Bible College

Albert Pighius's Controversial Doctrine of Original Sin

11.00

Coffee in the Common Room

11.30-13.00

Session IV: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: Anne Overell, Open University

11.30

Scott Amos, St Andrews University

New Learning, Old Theology: Renaissance Biblical Humanism, Scripture and the Question of Theological Method

12.15

Richard Rex, University of Cambridge

Humanism and the Reformation: conflict or convergence?

13.00

Lunch

14.15-16.00

Session V: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: Peter Stephens

14.15

Keynote Paper

David Wright, University of Edinburgh

The Early Church Fathers in the Scottish Reformation

15.15

Paul Ayris, UCL

Patterns of Reformation in the Register of Archbishop Thomas Cranmer

16.00

Tea in the Common Room

18.15

Conference Dinner

20.00

Concert in Westminster College Chapel by members of the choir from Gonville & Caius College, Cambridge

Friday, March 31st 2000

07.45

Breakfast

09.30-11.00

Session VI: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: Richard Rex, University of Cambridge

09.30

Anne Overell

Dangerous Liaisons: Edward VI's Christian Humanism and Italian Interventions, 1547-53

10.15

Patricia Demers, University of Alberta

Studying "the booke of the crucifixe, by continuall conversacion in faythe": Kateryn Parr's The Lamentation of a synner as Reformation Paraphrase

11.00

Coffee in the Common Room

11.30-12.45

Session VII: Healey Room and Elias Library

Chair: Tony Lane, London Bible College

11.30

Andreas Löwe, University of Cambridge

Biblical exegesis at the outset of the Catholic Reformation

12.15

Michael Lawrence, University of Cambridge

The Theological Formation of Thomas Goodwin in early Stuart Cambridge

13.00

Lunch

14.00

Annual General Meeting

14.30

Departures

For further information about this site please contact Nicholas Thompson at:
nj.thompson@auckland.ac.nz