

Thank you for agreeing to review the enclosed book for Reformation and Renaissance Review.

Reviews should normally be c1000 words in length. Reviewers may make the case for a longer review where they feel this is warranted (eg. in the case of a review article or the review of more than one book).

Completed reviews should be headed with publication details in the following format:

From Judaism to Calvinism: The Life and Writings of Immanuel Tremellius (c.1510-1580), by Kenneth Austin. St Andrews Studies in Reformation History. Aldershot: Ashgate Publishing, 2007. 233pp., hb., £55.00, ISBN 9780754652335.

Details of pricing and pagination can usually be obtained from the book itself or from a publisher's or bookseller's website (e.g. www.amazon.co.uk). If you can't find these, don't worry. They will be added to your review as part of the editorial process.

Information on the journal's house style can be downloaded here:

<http://reformationstudies.org/files/2013/05/rrrguide.pdf>

At the end of the review, please append your name, the name of your institution (unless you are currently free-lance), and your email address.

Once you have completed the review, please email the MSWord .docx or .doc file to:

nj.thompson@auckland.ac.nz

If you have any questions about this procedure, please do not hesitate to contact me at: the same address.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Thompson
